What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help us remember your preferences, improve your experience and understand how you interact with our platform.

Why We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Keep you logged in and remember your settings
- Analyze traffic and improve our platform (e.g., Google Analytics)
- Provide social media and sharing features
- Show relevant content and product suggestions
- Occasionally use marketing cookies (e.g., Meta Pixel) if you consent

Your Privacy Matters

We respect your privacy.

Non-essential cookies (like analytics or marketing) are only used with your explicit consent.

You can manage your cookie preferences at any time via our cookie banner or browser settings.

Types of Cookies We Use

- Essential Cookies – needed for basic site functionality (e.g., login, navigation)
- Functional Cookies – remember your preferences
- Analytics Cookies – help us understand how people use the site
- Marketing Cookies – used for personalized content and advertising

How to Control Cookies

You can accept, reject or customize cookies via our cookie settings pop-up when you first visit the site. Most browsers also allow you to control cookies through their settings.

Note: Disabling certain cookies may impact your experience on our platform.
